FIRST READING

MICAH 3:5-12 Pew Bible p. 1443

This is what the Lord says:
"As for the prophets
  who lead my people astray,
they proclaim 'peace'
  if they have something to eat,
but prepare to wage war against anyone who refuses to feed them.
Therefore night will come over you, without visions,
  and darkness, without divination.
The sun will set for the prophets,
  and the day will go dark for them.
The seers will be ashamed and the diviners disgraced.
They will all cover their faces
  because there is no answer from God."
But as for me, I am filled with power,
  with the Spirit of the Lord,
  and with justice and might,
to declare to Jacob his transgression,
  to Israel his sin.

Hear this, you leaders of Jacob,
  you rulers of Israel,
who despise justice
  and distort all that is right;
who build Zion with bloodshed,
  and Jerusalem with wickedness.
Her leaders judge for a bribe,
  her priests teach for a price,
  and her prophets tell fortunes for money.
Yet they look for the Lord's support and say,
  "Is not the Lord among us?
  No disaster will come upon us."
Therefore because of you,
  Zion will be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,
  the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

1 THESSALONIANS 2:9-13,17-20 Pew Bible p. 1838

Surely you remember, brothers and sisters, our toil and hardship; we worked night and day in order not to be a burden to anyone while we preached the gospel of God to you. You are witnesses, and so is God, of how holy, righteous and blameless we were among you who believed.

For you know that we dealt with each of you as a father deals with his own children, encouraging, comforting and urging you to live lives worthy of God, who calls you into his kingdom and glory.
And we also thank God continually because, when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word, but as it actually is, the word of God, which is indeed at work in you who believe.
But, brothers and sisters, when we were orphaned by being separated from you for a short time (in person, not in thought), out of our intense longing we made every effort to see you. For we wanted to come to you—certainly I, Paul, did, again and again—but Satan blocked our way. For what is our hope, our joy, or the crown in which we will glory in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes? Is it not you? Indeed, you are our glory and joy.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL SONG

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

MATTHEW 23:1-12 Pew Bible p. 1536

Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses's seat; therefore, do whatever they teach you and follow it, but do not do as they do, for they do not practice what they teach. They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on the shoulders of others, but they themselves are unwilling to lift a finger to move them. They do all their deeds to be seen by others, for they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long. They love to have the place of honor at banquets and the best seats in the synagogues and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces and to have people call them rabbi. But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers and sisters. And call no one your father on earth, for you have one Father, the one in heaven. Nor are you to be called instructors, for you have one instructor, the Messiah. The greatest among you will be your servant. All who exalt themselves will be humbled, and all who humble themselves will be exalted.

This is Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.
